

On Saturday the 6th March 1837. Personally came before me Geo. Galbraith a duly qualified Justice of the Peace for the County of Washington James Lee who says that he does not for himself or any other person owe any thing to the Government - that he has not embezzled or taken any arms, ammunition, of war or any other thing belonging to the Government or caused the same to be done - that the annexed discharge is the same that was given him for his services in the army that it is original just and true and that he has not received or retained any thing belonging to the Government
