

went to serve as a member of the Convention at San Felipe, and his company was attached to or consolidated with the company of Capt. Andrew B. Briscoe, that all of the last mentioned company except (to the best of my recollection James Thamer, James Drake (both of whom are now dead, or I suppose, having become dissatisfied) left the Army then commanded by Stephen V. Austin (I think) and Thamer, Drake and myself attached ourselves to the company commanded by Capt. James Brasher, Edward Burleson having about that time assumed the command of the forces near San Antonio, in the place of Austin; that after having participated in the fighting which resulted in the reduction and capitulation of San Antonio, I was on or about December 13th 1835 honorably discharged of said service, for which I have since received a bounty of 320 acres and a donation of 640 acres of land from the Republic of Texas - Further, that, afterward, in 1836, July, I entered into the service of Texas, at Beaumont Texas, under Captain Perry Harper, and proceeding with his company, joined the Texas Army under Ross (I believe) on the Goliath near San Antonio, and remaining in said service, time not now remembered, until I was discharged honorably, near the mouth of the Lavaca River at a place called (I believe) 'Dimmit's Landing', and that for this last mentioned service, I have since received
