

The State of Texas }
Guadalupe County } 3

Personally appears before me the undersigned party Henry E. McCulloch who being sworn deposes that he came into the possession of a bundle of papers belonging to Andrew J. Sewell in the fall of 1856, and that he has had them in his possession from that time until yesterday, that there was among those papers a discharge from the Service of the Republic of Texas signed by Capt George Lutherlaus on the 25th of April 1836, also an affidavit of Edwin Turner stating that said Sewell had served three months in Capt Albert Mortimer Company, that he was well acquainted with said Edwin Turner, recognizes the signature as his, and from his knowledge of the man, from a long and intimate acquaintance would rely upon his statements in this or any other business matter

Henry E. McCulloch
