San Patricio,
22 May 1964.

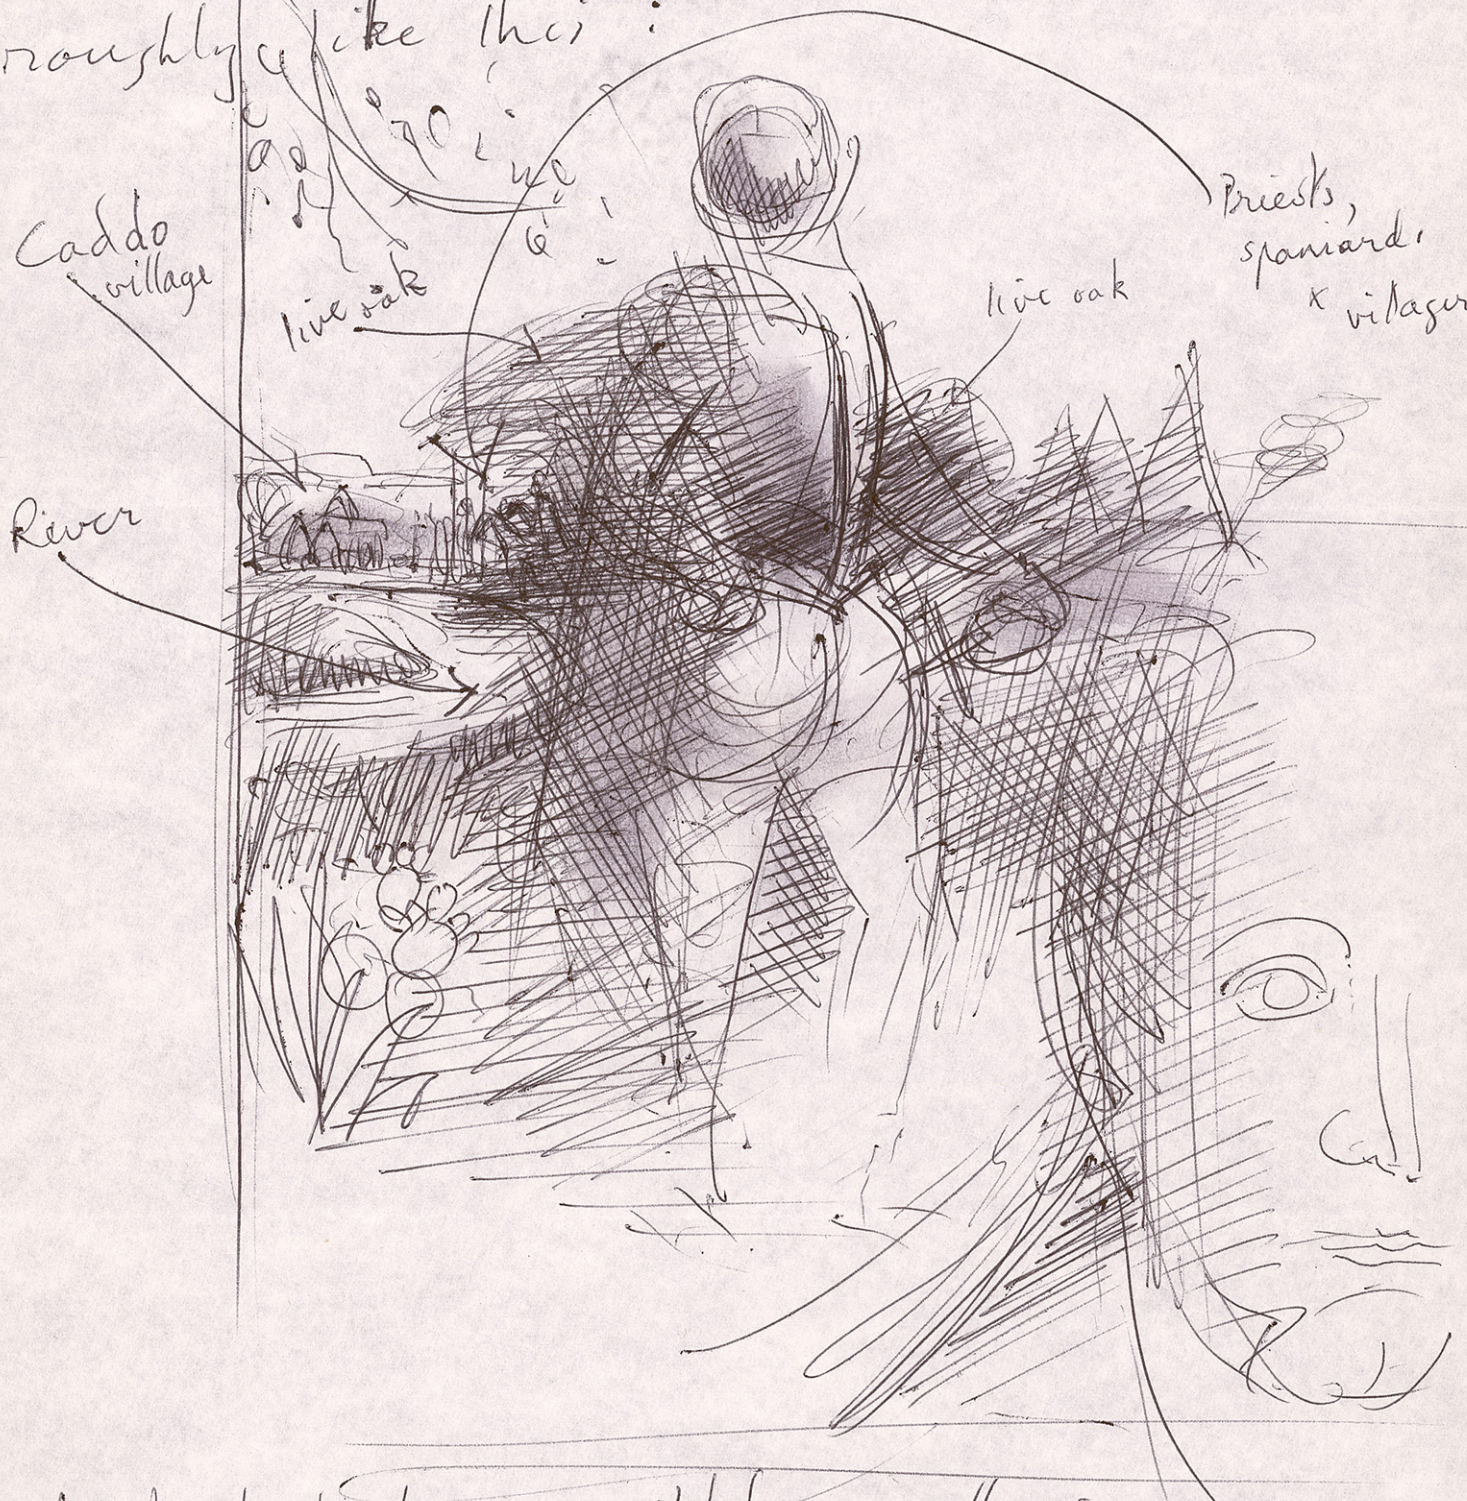
Dear Admiral Nieman,

Thank you very much for your letter & for the cheque.

As a matter of fact the inclusion of a train will be easy – I think for it in the distance to the right of the windmill. Also a distant view of skyscrapers can be managed instead of the university tower – I agree I think it would be better – something like this:

2...

The left hand end I have resolved roughly like this:



Not that these scribbles will give you much of an idea! but at least you'll see how I've got rid of those cluttering trees. The whole thing I think is greatly improved with the ends cropped in 3... this manner.

That is all I can think of to report at this stage. Much looking foward to seeing you again & to embarking at last on the wall itself.

Yours very sincerely

Peter Rogers.
