

Camp Bechenridge Jan 24th 62
Col J. M. Morris

Dear Sir,

I write to solicit the honorable discharge of Sergeant Jacob McCarty, of my Company. He will be 50 years of age on the 12th of November next, has always been sedulous and punctual in the discharge of his duties, and now wishes to leave the Company as the services are harder than he feels able to bear. A younger man can be had, as a substitute, better armed, and with a better horse than he now has.

Hoping that you may be able to grant this request, I will do so, as soon as convenient. I remain

Yours Very Respectfully
John Salmon
