

Woman's Rights in Texas.

Air: Dixie

There's growth and grace in the land of cotton,

Where woman's rights are not forgotten

Look away, look away,

Look away, Texas land.

In Texas land, where man and woman are close akin in all things human,

Look away, look away,

Look away, Texas Land,

Chorus:

And they're getting right in Texas.

Hooray! Hooray!

In Texas land they'll be on hand

For equal rights in Dixie

Away! Away! Away down south in Texas.

Away! Away! Away down south in Texas.

Old time are gone and we're beginning

To get our rights and have our living

Look away! Look away!

Look away! Texas land.

And when we get what's surely coming

We'll sing out loud, instead of humming.

Look away! Look away!

Look away! Texas land.

And that's the land all men shall honor,
With woman's rights conferred upon her.

Look away! Look away!

Look away! Texas land.

It won't be long till the wife and mother
Have equal rights with the son and brother.

Look away! Look away!

Look away! Texas land.

So, here's a health to the Dixie voter,
An honest man and a joy promoter.

Look away! look away!

Look away! Texas land.

He'll right our wrongs and end our sorrow,
And let us vote with him tomorrow.

Look away! look away!

Look away! Texas land.
