

Letters About Literature:

Read. Be Inspired. Write Back.

A Library of Congress National Reading-Writing Promotion Program

"...Without the competition, I may have never had any deep thoughts towards the books that I read...(it) opened up my mind to the world around me... (and) really inspired me to change the way I look at the world around me.

~ Level One Texas Winner, Benjamin Hu

Letters About Literature Seasonal Guide

Fall

Teach simple curriculum by Halloween*

Winter

- Deadlines for entries (Early December)
- Judging takes place at the National Levels (January)
- Judging at Texas State Library (during February)
- State finalists are submitted for final round (February 22)

Spring

- State Winners are chosen (March 1)
- Texas First Place Winners invited to attend Texas Library Association Annual Conference for awards ceremony
- Awards Ceremony held during Texas Association of School Librarians Meeting at TLA

Summer

National Winners Announced

*Teaching materials, FAQs, Winning Letters, and more at www.tsl.texas.gov/centerforthebook

Dates are subject to change

Interested in judging? Contact Texas Center for the Book Coordinator, Rebekah Manley at rmanley@tsl.texas.gov.

