

EYEWITNESS REPORT

Library staff members were interviewed about the movements of each suspect.

One staff member remembers that Rembrandt was looking for a recipe for sugar cookies.

He also remembers assisting Picasso in printing out an article on the uses of cornstarch as a carpet cleaner.

Another staff member noticed Van Gogh taking several trips to the drinking fountain to fill up a water bottle. Van Gogh said he was gargling with salt water to ease his sore throat.

She also remembers helping Matisse find a book on homemade cures for poison ivy. He complained to her that bathing with baking soda wasn't helping.