The TSLAC headquarters, the Lorenzo De Zavala building opened in 1962. It is undergoing a $15.5 million dollar legislative-appropriated renovation project. The Friends of Libraries & Archives of Texas, a non-profit support organization of TSLAC, is spearheading a $10 million dollar campaign (Texas State Library and Archives Commission's Capital Campaign).

The campaign is accepting pledges and donations for movable and freestanding archival shelving, furniture for patrons and staff, equipment, energy efficient lighting, recording booths for the Talking Book Program and a conservation lab that are not covered by the legislative appropriation. To join the Friends of Libraries and Archives of Texas, contact Charlotte McCann, director of development, at (512) 936-2505 or by email at friends@tsl.state.tx.us.
