

Health & Wellness Resource Center

Put some life into your health care research

Welcome to a new kind of “medical center”

Gale®'s Health & Wellness Resource Center is your one-stop access to an extraordinary collection of authoritative health references. The place where health professionals and consumers go for trustworthy medical reference material. Where current information is seamlessly integrated and presented in understandable terms. Where research efforts culminate with desired results.

Whether you are a health care professional, practitioner at a clinic or hospital, part of a private practice or simply a health-conscious consumer, the information found within Health & Wellness Resource Center will help in your search for complete, reliable answers to specific health and wellness questions.

The screenshot shows the Gale Health & Wellness Resource Center interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, Medical Encyclopedia, Drug & Herb Finder, Health Organizations, Medical Dictionary, Health News, Alternative Health Encyclopedia, Health Assessment, and Other Sites. A search bar contains the word "Cancer" and has buttons for Search, Clear Form, and Advanced Search. Below the search bar, there are tabs for Reference, Magazines & Journals, Pharmacy, Pamphlets, and Resources. The main content area displays search results for "Cancer", including a list of document titles with checkboxes for marking. The results include entries from the Gale Encyclopedia of Medicine, Gale Encyclopedia of Alternative Medicine, Harvard Special Health Reports, and Clinical Reference Systems.

Know the code

Health & Wellness Resource Center is certified by the HONcode (Health on the Net Code of Conduct). HONcode is a self-regulatory, voluntary certification system based on an “active seal” concept that aims to raise the quality of health care information available on the Web. While primarily intended for health care site developers and publishers, the HONcode seal also helps users identify sources of reliable information.

A wealth of health information

No more huge lists of irrelevant search results. No more scouring the Web for relevant sites. No more relying on information from out-of-date or unknown sources. The Health & Wellness Resource Center adds new periodical and newspaper articles daily — giving you more relevant results than any other health-related database.

Materials that have been carefully compiled include:

- A broad collection of Gale reference titles, including The Gale Encyclopedia of Medicine and The Gale Encyclopedia of Childhood & Adolescence

- Harvard Special Health Reports
- More than 2,100 journals and magazines
- Health information from leading newspapers
- Clinical Reference Systems
- Access to key health Web sites
- Alternative Health add-on module (featuring The Gale Encyclopedia of Alternative Medicine)
- And much more!
