We appreciate your efforts in maintaining an up-to-date schedule. Making additions and changes to your schedule as you identify them not only ensures the integrity of your recordkeeping practices, but keeps your agency in compliance with state rules (13 TAC §6.4) requiring the submission of any needed amendments to a retention schedule during its certification period to keep the information in the schedule current.

We will notify you of the date your schedule is due for recertification. Any additional approved amendments to your schedule, such as this one, should be incorporated into your main retention schedule prior to submitting it for recertification.

Thank you again for your commitment to complying with state records management laws and regulations. If we can provide any assistance to you, please contact the Government Information Analyst assigned to your agency:

Mr. Robert Norwood
Director, Records Management Compliance
University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston

Galveston, TX 77555-0918

Re: Agency records retention schedule amendment approved for use.

Dear Mr. Norwood:

Amendment 5 to your agency's 7 recertification of your records retention schedule is approved for use as of January 11, 2019. Your currently approved records retention schedule and all amendments are available on our website at <https://www.tsl.texas.gov/slrn/state/schedules.html>. Please maintain this amendment with your currently approved schedule so that it can be easily referenced.

We appreciate your efforts in maintaining an up-to-date schedule. Making additions and changes to your schedule as you identify them not only ensures the integrity of your recordkeeping practices but keeps your agency in compliance with state regulations (13 TAC §6.4) requiring the submission of any needed amendments to a retention schedule during its certification period to keep the information in the schedule current.

We will notify you of the date your schedule is due for recertification. Any additional approved amendments to your schedule, such as this one, should be incorporated into your main retention schedule prior to submitting it for recertification.

Thank you again for your commitment to complying with state records management laws and regulations. If we can provide any assistance to you, please contact the Government Information Analyst assigned to your agency, Gina Cervantes at 512-463-6623 or gcervantes@tsl.texas.gov.

Sincerely,

M. Robert Norwood
Director, Records Management Compliance
The University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston
301 University Blvd.
Galveston, TX 77555-0918

Re: Agency records retention schedule amendment approved for use.

Dear Mr. Norwood:

Amendment 4 to your agency's 7th recertification of your records retention schedule is approved for use as of March 12, 2018. Your currently approved records retention schedule and all amendments are available on our website at <https://www.tsl.texas.gov/slrn/state/schedules.html>. Please maintain this amendment with your currently approved schedule so that it can be easily referenced.

We appreciate your efforts in maintaining an up-to-date schedule. Making additions and changes to your schedule as you identify them not only ensures the integrity of your recordkeeping practices, but keeps your agency in compliance with state regulations (13 TAC §6.4) requiring the submission of any needed amendments to a retention schedule during its certification period to keep the information in the schedule current.

We will notify you of the date your schedule is due for recertification. Any additional approved amendments to your schedule, such as this one, should be incorporated into your main retention schedule prior to submitting it for recertification.

Thank you again for your commitment to complying with state records management laws and regulations. If we can provide any assistance to you, please contact the Government Information Analyst assigned to your agency, Gina Cervantes at 512-463-6623 or gcervantes@tsl.texas.gov.

Sincerely,

Craig Kelso

Amendment 3 to your agency's 7th recertification of your records retention schedule is approved for use as of June 22, 2017 your currently approved records retention schedule and all amendments are available on our website at <https://www.tsl.texas.gov/slrn/state/schedules.html>. Please maintain this amendment with your currently approved schedule so that it can be easily referenced.

We appreciate your efforts in maintaining an up-to-date schedule. Making additions and changes to your schedule as you identify them not only ensures the integrity of your recordkeeping practices, but keeps your agency in compliance with state regulations (13 TAC §6.4) requiring the submission of any needed amendments to a retention schedule during its certification period to keep the information in the schedule current.

We will notify you of the date your schedule is due for recertification. Any additional approved amendments to your schedule, such as this one, should be incorporated into your main retention schedule prior to submitting it for recertification.

Thank you again for your commitment to complying with state records management laws and regulations. If we can provide any assistance to you, please contact the Government Information Analyst assigned to your agency, Gina Cervantes at 512-463-6623 or gcervantes@tsl.texas.gov.

Sincerely,

Transitory records are not essential to the fulfillment of statutory obligations or to the documentation of agency functions. Some examples of transitory information, which can be in any medium (voice mail, fax, email, hard copy, etc.) are routine messages; internal meeting notices; routing slips; incoming letters or memoranda of transmittal that add nothing of substance to enclosures; and similar routine information used for communication, but not for the documentation, of a specific agency transaction.	AC	0	AC	AC = Purpose of record has been fulfilled. CAUTION: Records management officers should use caution in assigning this records series item number to records of an agency to make certain they are not part of another records series listed in this schedule or, for records series unique to an agency, are not part of a records series that documents the fulfillment of the statutory obligations of the agency or the documentation of its functions. The disposal of transitory information need not be documented through destruction authorizations (1.2.001) or in records disposition logs (1.2.010), but agencies should establish procedures governing disposal of these records as part of its records management plan (1.2.014). Transitory records are not essential to the fulfillment of statutory obligations or to the documentation of agency functions. Some examples of transitory information, which can be in any medium (voice mail, fax, email, hard copy, etc.) are routine messages; internal meeting notices; routing slips; incoming letters or memoranda of transmittal that add nothing of substance to enclosures; and similar routine information used for communication, but not for the documentation, of a specific agency transaction.	AC	0	AC		AC = Purpose of record has been fulfilled. CAUTION: Records management officers should use caution in assigning this records series item number to records of an agency to make certain they are not part of another records series listed in this schedule or, for records series unique to an agency, are not part of a records series that documents the fulfillment of the statutory obligations of the agency or the documentation of its functions. The disposal of transitory information need not be documented through destruction authorizations (1.2.001) or in records disposition logs (1.2.010), but agencies should establish procedures governing disposal of these records as part of its records management plan (1.2.014). Re: Agency records retention schedule amendment approved for use

Dear Mr. Norwood:

P.O. Box 12927
Austin, Texas
78711.2927

Amendment 2 to your agency's 7th recertification of your records retention schedule is approved for use as of Friday, June 3, 2016. Your currently approved records retention schedule and all amendments are available on our website at <https://www.tsl.texas.gov/slrn/state/schedules.html>. Please maintain this amendment with your currently approved schedule so that it can be easily referenced.

4400 Shoal Creek Blvd.
Austin, Texas
78756

We appreciate your efforts in maintaining an up-to-date schedule. Making additions and changes to your schedule as you identify them not only ensures the integrity of your recordkeeping practices, but keeps your agency in compliance with state regulations (13 TAC §6.4) requiring the submission of any needed amendments to a retention schedule during its certification period to keep the information in the schedule current.

www.tsl.texas.gov

We will notify you of the date your schedule is due for recertification. Any additional approved amendments to your schedule, such as this one, should be incorporated into your main retention schedule prior to submitting it for recertification.

Commission Chairman
Michael C. Waters

Thank you again for your commitment to complying with state records management laws and regulations. If we can provide any assistance to you, please contact the Government Information Analyst assigned to your agency, Erica Wilson, at 512-463-6627 or ewilson@tsl.texas.gov.

Re: Agency records retention schedule amendment approved for use

P.O. Box 12927
Austin, Texas

Dear Mr. Norwood:

Amendment 1 to your agency's 7th recertification of your records retention schedule is approved for use as of Wednesday, November 18, 2015. Your currently approved records retention schedule and all amendments are available on our website at <https://www.tsl.texas.gov/slrn/state/schedules.html>. Please maintain this amendment with your currently approved schedule so that it can be easily referenced.

4400 Shoal Creek Blvd.
Austin, Texas
78756

We appreciate your efforts in maintaining an up-to-date schedule. Making additions and changes to your schedule as you identify them not only ensures the integrity of your recordkeeping practices, but keeps your agency in compliance with state regulations (13 TAC §6.4) requiring the submission of any needed amendments to a retention schedule during its certification period to keep the information in the schedule current.

www.tsl.texas.gov

We will notify you of the date your schedule is due for recertification. Any additional approved amendments to your schedule, such as this one, should be incorporated into your main retention schedule prior to submitting it for recertification.

Commission Chairman
Michael C. Waters

Thank you again for your commitment to complying with state records management laws and regulations. If we can provide any assistance to you, please contact the Government Information Analyst assigned to your agency, Erica Wilson, at 512-463-6627 or ewilson@tsl.texas.gov.

Transitory records are not essential to the fulfillment of statutory obligations or to the documentation of agency functions. Some examples of transitory information, which can be in any medium (voice mail, fax, email, hard copy, etc.) are routine messages; internal meeting notices; routing slips; incoming letters or memoranda of transmittal that add nothing of substance to enclosures; and similar routine information used for communication, but not for the documentation, of a specific agency transaction.	AC	0	AC	AC = Purpose of record has been fulfilled. CAUTION: Records management officers should use caution in assigning this records series item number to records of an agency to make certain they are not part of another records series listed in this schedule or, for records series unique to an agency, are not part of a records series that documents the fulfillment of the statutory obligations of the agency or the documentation of its functions. The disposal of transitory information need not be documented through destruction authorizations (1.2.001) or in records disposition logs (1.2.010), but agencies should establish procedures governing disposal of these records as part of its records management plan (1.2.014). *Preserving yesterday,
informing today,
inspiring tomorrow.*

Dear Mr. Norwood:

Your agency's records retention schedule is approved for use as of January 9, 2015. Your currently approved records retention schedule is available on our website at <https://www.tsl.texas.gov/slrn/state/schedules.html>. Please ensure all old copies of the schedule are superseded with this recertified copy.

Your approved retention schedule provides you with continuing authorization to dispose of agency records according to its terms. Please note that state regulations (13 TAC §6.8) require documentation of the final disposition of records by your agency. This requirement may be met by maintaining a disposition log or other evidence of the records series titles, dates covered, volume, and date of disposition. We urge on you the importance of disposing of the records of your agency in a timely manner in accordance with the retention periods on your schedule. The destruction of any records of your agency not on your schedule requires special authorization from us.

Each agency schedule must be reviewed, updated and submitted for recertification annually for the first two years after the initial approval of the schedule and every five years thereafter. The deadline for submission of your schedule for its next recertification is the last working day of January 2020.

During a certification period changes may need to be made to your schedule. State regulations (13 TAC §6.4) also allow for the submission of amendments to the retention schedule as needed to keep the information in the schedule current. If you are not familiar with the amendment process, or if you have any other questions, please contact the Government Information Analyst assigned to your agency, Erica Wilson, at 512-463-6627 or ewilson@tsl.texas.gov.

Your efforts in developing a records retention schedule are appreciated. It not only helps to ensure the integrity of your recordkeeping practices, but it is also essential to the success of your records management program.

Sincerely,

1.1.057	200408	Transitory Information Records of temporary usefulness that are not an integral part of a records series of an agency, that are not regularly filed within an agency's recordkeeping system, and that are required only for a limited period of time for the completion of an action by an official or employee of the agency or in the preparation of an ongoing records series. Transitory records are not essential to the fulfillment of statutory obligations or to the documentation of agency functions. Some examples of transitory information, which can be in any medium (voice mail, fax, email, hard copy, etc.) are routine messages; internal meeting notices; routing slips; incoming letters or memoranda of transmittal that add nothing of substance to enclosures; and similar routine information used for communication, but not for the documentation, of a specific agency transaction.	AC	0	AC	AC = Purpose of record has been fulfilled. CAUTION: Records management officers should use caution in assigning this records series item number to records of an agency to make certain they are not part of another records series listed in this schedule or, for records series unique to an agency, are not part of a records series that documents the fulfillment of the statutory obligations of the agency or the documentation of its functions. The disposal of transitory information need not be documented through destruction authorizations (1.2.001) or in records disposition logs (1.2.010), but agencies should establish procedures governing disposal of these records as part of its records management plan (1.2.014).

1.1.057	202004	Transitory Information Records of temporary usefulness that are not an integral part of a records series of an agency, that are not regularly filed within an agency's recordkeeping system, and that are required only for a limited period of time for the completion of an action by an official or employee of the agency or in the preparation of an ongoing records series. Transitory records are not essential to the fulfillment of statutory obligations or to the documentation of agency functions. Some examples of transitory information, which can be in any medium (voice mail, fax, email, hard copy, etc.) are routine messages; internal meeting notices; routing slips; incoming letters or memoranda of transmittal that add nothing of substance to enclosures; and similar routine information used for communication, but not for the documentation, of a specific agency transaction.	AC	0	AC	AC = Purpose of record has been fulfilled. CAUTION: Records management officers should use caution in assigning this records series item number to records of an agency to make certain they are not part of another records series listed in this schedule or, for records series unique to an agency, are not part of a records series that documents the fulfillment of the statutory obligations of the agency or the documentation of its functions. The disposal of transitory information need not be documented through destruction authorizations (1.2.001) or in records disposition logs (1.2.010), but agencies should establish procedures governing disposal of these records as part of its records management plan (1.2.014).

1.1.057	203905	Transitory Information Records of temporary usefulness that are not an integral part of a records series of an agency, that are not regularly filed within an agency's recordkeeping system, and that are required only for a limited period of time for the completion of an action by an official or employee of the agency or in the preparation of an ongoing records series. Transitory records are not essential to the fulfillment of statutory obligations or to the documentation of agency functions. Some examples of transitory information, which can be in any medium (voice mail, fax, email, hard copy, etc.) are routine messages; internal meeting notices; routing slips; incoming letters or memoranda of transmittal that add nothing of substance to enclosures; and similar routine information used for communication, but not for the documentation, of a specific agency transaction.	AC	0	AC	AC = Purpose of record has been fulfilled. CAUTION: Records management officers should use caution in assigning this records series item number to records of an agency to make certain they are not part of another records series listed in this schedule or, for records series unique to an agency, are not part of a records series that documents the fulfillment of the statutory obligations of the agency or the documentation of its functions. The disposal of transitory information need not be documented through destruction authorizations (1.2.001) or in records disposition logs (1.2.010), but agencies should establish procedures governing disposal of these records as part of its records management plan (1.2.014).
1.3.001	203906	State Publications One copy of each state publication as defined on page xi of the introduction of this schedule, except a publication that is subject to a different retention period in this schedule. For example, a meeting agenda (see item number 1.1.058) also meets the definition, but it must be retained permanently; item numbers 1.1.004, 1.1.055, 1.1.066, 1.1.068, and 4.5.003, which also meet the definition, are closely associated with the appropriations process and must be retained AC + 6.	AC+2	0	AC+2	AC = Until superseded or obsolete. CAUTION: Many state publications must be submitted to the Texas State Publications Depository Program, Texas State Library and Archives Commission, by law (Government Code 441.101- 441.106). The Texas State Library and Archives Commission will retain a copy of all state publications submitted to it on a continuing basis, subject to periodic evaluation to determine if the publication merits further retention.
