Spring 2017

Talking Book Program

Volume 6, Number 1

Studio Volunteer Appreciation Party

Thursday, June 8, 2017
6:30 p.m.

Details about the event and how to RSVP will be sent to your email or contact Tom for more information.

Parking @ TSLAC

We now have three designated spots for studio volunteers. The existing two spots on the south end of the building will be exclusively for studio volunteers. We also have added a single spot on the north end of the building. Director and State Librarian Mark Smith has volunteered his spot for the foreseeable future and will be parking in the staff parking garage. The spot now available for studio volunteers is the very last slot, #55, next to the driveway into the loading dock.

WHERE YOU MAY PARK:

- Slot #55 on 13th Street at the north end of the building, next to the driveway into the loading dock. The other slots on the north end of the building are reserved for state agency staff (State Library and the Preservation Board).
- Slots #30 and #31 on 12th Street at the south end of the building. These are the two closest spots to the intersection of 12th and San Jacinto. Other slots on the south end are reserved for the Governor's staff.
- Anywhere in the Visitors' Garage that is not a reserved parking space. The first two hours in this garage are free, and Talking Book Program will provide vouchers to pay for any time you are here over the two hours. See Tom or Miles if you need some vouchers.

Parking cont.

- In the State Library's loading dock, if a space is available. Because the volunteers who work in the Archives have been told not to park on the south end anymore, they will be parking in the loading dock, too. Remember also that there will be times when the loading dock has to be cleared of all parking because of big truck deliveries.
- When you park in the reserved parking spaces or in the loading dock, always display your volunteer parking form on the dashboard of your vehicle. Vehicles that do not display a parking form are subject to ticketing and/or towing by the Capitol police. If you don't have a dashboard form, please contact Miles.
- If you see someone parked in one of the street spots without the volunteer parking form, let Tom or Miles know about it. We will report that vehicle to the Capitol police.

Many thanks to all of you for persevering despite parking obstacles. All of us here in the Talking Book Program and the Texas State Library and Archives Commission are very grateful for all our volunteers and the time, effort, and commitment that all of you so graciously put into your volunteer activities. And the patrons of the Talking Book Program--the benefactors of your efforts—are likewise very grateful, as many of them would not be able to read all the books made available by your hard work that would otherwise be beyond their reach. We cannot thank you enough.

Please remember to wear and visibly display your volunteer badge when you are in the building. Forgetting to do so, will result in Studio staff having to escort volunteers in and out of the building.

This newsletter is a publication of the Texas Talking Book Program for recording studio volunteers and staff. If you have any comments or suggestions, please contact Jaclyn Owusu, TBP Public Awareness Coordinator at jowusu@tsl.texas.gov.
