

FRIENDS OF LIBRARIES & ARCHIVES OF TEXAS

Who Are the Friends?

Lovers of learning, libraries, books, archives, genealogy, and Texas history — in fact, all who believe in the preservation of and promoting access to Texas' rich history for all generations

What Do the Friends Do?

- Advocate and promote the Talking Book Program and other statewide services and collections of the Texas State Library and Archives Commission
- Fundraise to expand the services and collections of the Texas State Library and Archives Commission and support the efforts of its staff
- Foster the development of local groups in support of local libraries and archives in Texas

The Friends raised funds for the Capital Campaign for the Lorenzo de Zavala State Archives and Library Building, including Talking Book Program furnishings and equipment, and co-sponsored the Meet the Narrator! Talking Book Program event.
